

PRESS RELEASE

18/04/2022

MARC GUILLOT WINS, NICOLAS MILAN FILLS UP ON POINTS

After finishing third in the opening race of the year, Marc Guillot (Milan Compétition) claimed his maiden win this year at Circuit Paul Armagnac in Nogaro. Starting second on the grid, the Frenchman took the lead from Nicolas Milan (Milan Compétition) on lap two and never looked back. David Pouget (GPA Racing) completed the podium to keep the Clio Cup France lead while Mathieu Lannepoudenx (Milan Compétition) and Mathieu Rigoulet (Vic'Team) took top honours in the Challengers Cup and Gentlemen Drivers Cup.

Less than twenty-four hours after David Pouget's victory on Sunday, the Clio Cup was back in action for the second qualifying session. Relegated outside the podium yesterday after one of his rare mistakes, Nicolas Milan waited until the last few seconds to wrest the pole position away from Marc Guillot and David Pouget, who were separated by one-thousandth of a second. Challengers Alexandre Finkelstein (GPA Racing) and Mathieu Lannepoudenx completed the top five in a session marked by the red flag caused by Alexandre Albouy (GPA Racing).

Nicolas Milan held onto the lead at the start of the race before Marc Guillot began to fill up his mirrors, whilst David Pouget resisted the attacks of the chase group, now led by Mathieu Lannepoudenx. The order changed quickly when Marc Guillot took advantage of Nicolas Milan when he locked up his brakes to take the lead on lap two.

There were some fine battles in the field among Léo Jousset (Milan Compétition), Guillaume Maio (GM Sport), Joran Leneutre (JSB Compétition) and Aurélien Renet (JSB Compétition), while Alexandre Albouy sliced his way through the field from the back of the grid after his accident in qualifying. Meanwhile, Michel Leal (Milan Compétition) and Laurent Dziadus (Team Lucas) saw their races end prematurely.

As the laps ticked off, the leading trio pulled away from the rest of the field whilst keeping within a second of each other. Despite several observation laps, Marc Guillot held on to the lead as Nicolas Milan preferred to secure big points, as this round only rewarded competitors entered in Clio Cup France - while his teammate has opted for Clio Cup Europe and Clio Cup Eastern Europe in 2022.

Marc Guillot then claimed his first win this season ahead of Nicolas Milan and David Pouget. Behind this trio came the Challengers Cup podium with the first success of the year for Mathieu Lannepoudenx ahead of Joran Leneutre (JSB Compétition), who got past Alexandre Finkelstein on lap eight. Léo Jousset came home seventh in front of Alexandre Albouy, who picked up 18 positions in 16 laps. Jerzy Spinkiewicz (Uniq Racing) took ninth place from Aurélien Renet with six laps to go, and Mathieu Rigoulet sealed his second win in the Gentlemen Drivers category ahead of Jérémy Bordagaray (Team Borda Rally) and "Horn" (GPA Racing).

Despite Nicolas Milan's maximum score, David Pouget retains the lead in Clio Cup France ahead of his rival and Alexandre Albouy. Next in the order are Mathieu Lannepoudenx. Joran Leneutre and Alexandre Finkelstein, all equal on points, but the former takes the lead in the Challengers Cup while Mathieu Rigoulet has a 17-point lead from "Horn" in the Gentlemen Drivers Cup.

The Clio Cup now heads to the Jarama Circuit. The second meeting of 2022 will kick off the Clio Cup Europe and Clio Cup Spain seasons. More than thirty drivers will be in action for this meeting which marks the long-awaited return of the Clio Cup to the Madrid track.

ABOUT THE CLIO CUP EUROPE

Since the launch of the R8 Gordini Cup in 1966, Renault has maintained a continuous presence on circuits around the world. Several thousand Clio Cups have been sold since 1991, and all five generations have been recognised for their performance, reliability and affordability. With its experience in promotional formulas and one-make series, Renault provides its savoir-faire and expertise to professionals and amateurs by offering a modern product adapted to their needs. In 2022, the Clio Cup will be in action in the Clio Cup Europe but also in Clio Cup France, Clio Cup Spain, Clio Cup Italia and Clio Cup Eastern Europe, thanks to an innovative calendar opening up numerous opportunities for competitors from all backgrounds: experienced drivers, Challengers and Gentlemen Drivers!

ABOUT RENAULT

Renault, a historic mobility brand and pioneer of electric vehicles in Europe, has always developed innovative vehicles. With the 'Renaultion' strategic plan, Renault has embarked on an ambitious, value-generating transformation moving towards a more competitive, balanced and electrified range. Its ambition is to embody modernity and innovation in technology, energy and mobility services in the automotive industry and beyond.