

THE CHAUFFRAYS ON TOP IN LE TOUQUET

Already a winner in Rallye Le Touquet- Pas-de-Calais last year, Thomas Chauffray made it two on the bounce this weekend, this time with Pauline Chauffray by his side. Junior category drivers Tom Pieri and Styvie Juif completed the podium. The Chauffrays also won the Jean Ragnotti Power Stage to score maximum points and move to the top of the Clio Trophy France Asphalte classification heading to the Antibes Côte d'Azur Rally (19-22 May).

Forty crews entered the new Clio Trophy France Asphalte campaign on the roads of Pas-de-Calais, and despite a longer route, the first drivers to excel were the same as last year.

Ten months after setting an identical time to start the previous season, Tom Pieri and Thomas Chauffray found themselves in the lead, this time separated by 1.7s. In a similar scenario, Thomas Chauffray kept his momentum going with a pair of fastest times to return to the service park with a 7.1s lead over Tom Pieri. Behind, Patrick Magnou, Styvie Juif and Romain Fostier were lying in wait while Karl Pinheiro and Benjamin Stirling were among the win contenders to see their day cut short in the first loop.

Styvie Juif stepped up the pace in the early evening by winning the repeat runs of the three stages. The runner-up to Romain Di-Fante, who set the fastest time by a tenth of a second on SS4, two tenths on SS5 and three tenths on SS6, moved up from fourth to second place. He trimmed Thomas Chauffray's lead to 4.4s and initiated a great duel for the honours in the Junior category by getting the better of Tom Pieri.

The second leg began with the longest timed sector, the Jean Ragnotti Power Stage rewarding the ten fastest drivers. Thomas Chauffray scored the maximum ten bonus points on offer, beating Patrick Magnou and Styve Juif, who was now 6.9s behind. The leader was not about to rest on his laurels and kept pushing, with three scratch times on the following four stages while Tom Pieri continued his fierce battle with Styve Juif, reclaiming second place on SS9 before clocking the best run on SS10.

In the final loop, Thomas Chauffray managed his lead to go on for the win by 6.9 seconds over Tom Pieri. With two more fastest times on SS12 and SS15, Tom Pieri sealed second place in the general classification and top honours in the Junior category with a 5.3 seconds margin over Styve Juif. After Patrick Magnou was penalised for technical non-conformity and Romain Fostier retired due to a damaged gearbox after going off the road on SS12, Yoan Corberand finished fourth, followed by Juniors Jeremy Sarhy and Louis Myr. Yann Clairay finished seventh in his return to the Renault trophies, ahead of Sébastien Rambaud, who eventually won his duel with Guillaume Bonnet. Nicolas Hebrard completed the top ten in this opening round of the season.

In the Women category, Margot Dupuy immediately shot to the top of the order before going off the road on SS9. Marina Breuil made the most of the situation to take the lead and go on for the win ahead of Élodie Gines and Capucine Ouvry. In the Gentlemen category, Gabriel Conti set the pace before crashing on SS3. Eric Royère moved into the lead and progressively extended the gap to take a comfortable win ahead of José Da Cunha.

With the win and best time on the Jean Ragnotti Power Stage, Thomas Chauffray takes a ten-point lead in the general classification ahead of Tom Pieri, who is three points ahead of Styve Juif among the Juniors. His successful weekend also sees Europe Location climb to the top of the teams' classification while Grands Moulins Auto becomes the first leader of this year's Renault Network Challenge.

The second round of the calendar will see the Clio Trophy France Asphalte crews battle on the roads of the Rallye Antibes Côte d'Azur (19-22 May), where the Clio Rally5s will once again feature in the FFSA French Rally Championship.

ABOUT THE CLIO TROPHY FRANCE ASPHALTE AND TERRE

After a successful launch, Clio Rally5 is now taking on all surfaces with the Clio Trophy France Asphalte and the Clio Trophy France Terre. With two calendars intentionally independent and complementary to maximise the opportunities for all, each trophy consists of five rounds of the FFSA French Tarmac or Gravel Rally Championship. Junior, Gentlemen, Female and Teams categories allow all the contenders to be valorised while enjoying unrivalled technical support and a unique level of equity at this level of the pyramid. A real springboard for the most promising hopefuls, the best Juniors on each surface at the end of the year will be offered an official programme with Clio Rally4.
