Preview: teaser of a new Renault crossover to be revealed at 2018 Moscow International Motor Show

At the 2018 Moscow Motor Show, Groupe Renault will present the world premiere of a show car: a Renault C-segment crossover. Russia will be the first country to sell this new model.

The new vehicle will be a real breakthrough for the Russian SUV-market, strengthening the leadership of Renault Russia in this promising, fast-growing segment. The launch of this global model will open a new chapter in the history of not only Renault Russia. Russia will be the first country to set up the production and to start sales of the new Renault global model. The production of the new crossover will be set up at Renault Moscow plant, which was selected as the first industrial site to manufacture the new global C-SUV.
