RENAULT ESPACE: THE SIXTH GENERATION WILL BE UNVEILED IN SPRING

- Renault reveals its new 5- and 7- seater SUV will be called Espace
- Espace is an iconic name that connects the new SUV to the five previous generations
- In November 2023, Renault will celebrate 40 years of the Espace concept, first presented in 1983

ESPACE

Widely known throughout France and around the world, the Espace name rapidly stood out as the obvious choice for the sixth generation of Renault's new 5- and 7-seater SUV.

Each generation of Espace has evolved to effectively meet customer expectations and position itself as a car of its time.

Today, it starts a new chapter in which it will epitomise the revitalisation of the Renault brand while following in the tracks of and remaining true to the previous generations of Espace, as it is above all else comfortable, innovative and top of the range.

Built around the Alliance's CMF-CD platform, the New Espace will seat up to 7 people in a car designed for long journeys.

The New Renault Espace will be unveiled in a world premiere in spring 2023.
