Renault introduces new high-end limited-edition MEGANE in France

- The new limited-edition Mégane AKAJU becomes the popular hatchback range's most exclusive trim level.
- Renault to open order books for the new version in France on June 7.
- The new limited-edition Mégane will be on display during the sales network's promotional week on June 15-19.

In addition to the extensive list of equipment that comes with Mégane INTENS, the limited-edition AKAJU version features elegant 18-inch Grand Tour alloy wheels, lateral AKAJU badging and extra-tinted rear glass.

Inside the cabin, the focus is on refinement, with heated, massaging⁽¹⁾ front seats, Black and Club Brown leather upholstery and matching brown brushed aluminium door panel trims.

The new limited-edition version of Mégane delivers an exclusive driving experience, too, thanks to its premium Bose® sound system and colour head-up display which are both standard fitments.

The Mégane AKAJU is equipped with R-LINK 2 navigation compatible with Android Auto and Apple CarPlay for smartphone replication on the system's 8.7-inch display. The model's ZEN, BUSINESS, INTENS, LIMITED and GT trim levels also offer this new feature.
